

Boston, A City I'd Like to Visit

ERICA WHITEMAN

Boston Harbor Islands National Park Area

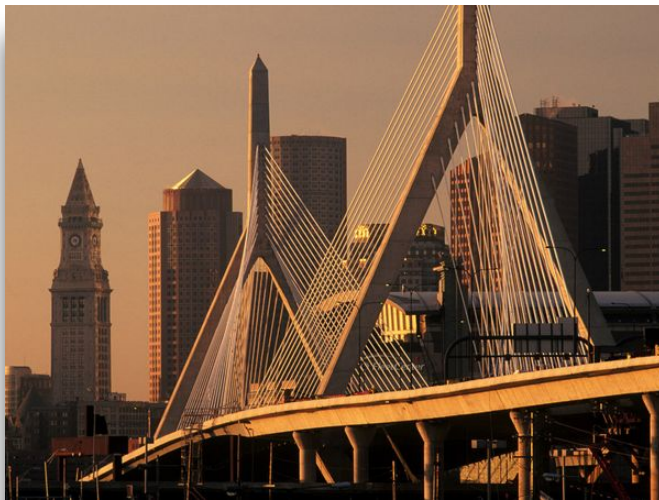

Ferries leave from Boston's Long Wharf by Christopher Columbus Park to many of the islands, where hiking, picnicking, camping, swimming, and fishing opportunities abound.

Boston Duck Tours

Driving brightly-colored retrofitted military amphibious vehicles, the larger-than-life tour guides impersonate characters ranging from a police officer to a super hero to a magician; includes a dunk in the Charles River (the vehicle, not you).

Afternoon Tea at the Bristol in the Four Seasons

Enjoy absolutely fantastic tea food (finger sandwiches, pastries, scones, strawberry jam, lemon curd, and Devonshire cream) with a staff making you feel like royalty.
